

INDIAN LEAN CONSTRUCTION CONFERENCE 2025

Driving Transformative Change: Lean Construction for Sustainable and Digitalized Project Delivery in India

The 8th Indian Lean Construction Conference - ILCC 2025 - will be held in IIT Tirupati, India, from 30th November to 3rd December 2025. Continuing its legacy, the conference brings together a vibrant community of owners, designers, constructors, and researchers to foster knowledge exchange and innovation in Lean Construction.

This year's edition features a blend of Workshop Day, Industry Day, and Academic Conference Days, offering diverse opportunities to explore the latest methods, case studies, and research in lean thinking.

Set at the foothills of the Eastern Ghats, IIT Tirupati - our host venue offers an inspiring and evolving academic environment in one of South India's most culturally significant cities. We look forward to your presence at ILCC 2025 as we collectively shape the future of lean-driven infrastructure.
